

Center Stage Magazine and Heart Songs Corporation are joining forces during CMA Fest week, June 8-10, 2017, to showcase some of the best independent artists in music and to raise money for some very worthy charities for our veterans, and those with autism and cancer by hosting our own special event. We are offering two options for artists to perform in the legendary, world famous Printer's Alley at Nashville's Original Gin Mill establishment, Alley Taps.

$300 : Artist w/Full Band (45 minute set)

$225 : Acoustic Performance (artist +1, 40 minute set)

$125 : Acoustic Performance (artist +1, 20 minute set)

- Your performance will be streamed live online
- You and/or your band will be featured in an interview with Center Stage Magazine
- Center Stage Magazine and Heart Songs Corporation will promote YOU on our social media channels weekly leading up to the event
- Center Stage Magazine will do weekly live group chats with artists to promote the artist and the event
- Heart Songs Corporation will promote YOU and the event on the weekly "Project Lips" radio show
- Center Stage Magazine and Heart Songs Corporation will promote YOU and the event on our websites

- You will be able to sell your merchandise at the venue for all three (3) days of the event (artist must agree to donate 20% of merchandise proceeds to charity)

AVAILABILITY IS LIMITED TO 33 ARTISTS

DON'T MISS YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO PERFORM AT NASHVILLE'S PREMIERE EVENT OF 2017! RESERVE YOUR SPOT TODAY VIA EMAIL:

CMAFEST@CENTERSTAGEMAG.COM

or

JILL@HEARTSONGSCORP.COM